

LANDSCAPE CULTIVATOR

Stone Soup Gardens specializes in the design and installation of beautiful, sustainable, and edible garden spaces. We work to connect our clients to their personal environment and their food. The General Cultivator position is a dynamic position on our growing team. The candidate will have general landscaping skills in maintenance work, installation including carpentry or masonry, or farm experience. The position available full-time with opportunities for advancement in the company based on your skill set.

Desired Skills and Qualifications

- Excellent verbal communication skills
- Excellent problem solving skills
- Ability to lift 75 lbs repeatedly, day in day out
- Minimum 1 year previous experience in landscaping, farming, construction, carpentry, masonry or related industry
- Be familiar with plant identification and proper planting procedures
- Reliable personal transportation and a willingness to travel throughout greater Seattle
- Honest, dependable, flexible, and hardworking
- Tool Savvy-comfortable using power tools, hand tools, trucks and larger equipment (excavators, dump trucks, etc.) safely and efficiently.

Pay and Benefits

$15+ DOE

- Benefits include body benefits such as massage, paid time off, overtime pay, continuing education opportunities, and a flexible vacation policy.

Please email cover letter and resume to Jake Harris at gardenergnome@gmail.com.
No phone calls, please.

www.StoneSoupGardens.com